EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on the 28th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette, declares the countries which are to be convention countries for the purposes of the Patents Act 1953, the Designs Act 1953, and the Trade Marks Act 1953. It brings up to date and replaces the list presently set out in the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Convention Order 1994.

The countries named in the Schedule to the order are declared to be convention countries by reason of their membership of the Paris Union, which was established by the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property of 20 March 1883. Those countries have adhered to the Hague, London, Lisbon, or Stockholm revisions of the Convention, and are convention countries for all of the purposes of the 3 Acts.

India and Pakistan are convention countries for the purposes specified in clause 3 of the order pursuant to arrangements made with India in 1921.

Ecuador and Guatemala are convention countries for the purposes specified in clause 4 of the order pursuant to treaties made with the United Kingdom, being treaties to which New Zealand acceded.

Costa Rica is included in the Schedule to the order for the first time. It was formerly included in clause 4 of the order as it was a convention country for the purposes of the Designs Act 1953 and the Trade Marks Act 1953. It is now also a convention country for the purposes of the Patents Act 1953.

Included in the list of convention countries for the first time are Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Estonia, Georgia, Guyana, Kyrgyzstan, Liberia, Lithuania, Paraguay, Peru, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Singapore, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Venezuela.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 26 September 1996
This order is administered in the Ministry of Commerce.
