INFORMATION CONCERNING CERTIFICATION OF ORIGIN

Notification from Romania

Addendum

The following communication is being circulated at the request of the Delegation of Romania.

The Department of Foreign Trade of Romania is, since 1 October 2002, authorized to issue and stamp certificates of origin accompanying exports from Romania under the Protocol relating to Trade Negotiations among Developing Countries.

Accordingly, to ensure that Romania's exports are eligible for the preferential treatment granted by the importing countries, the Department of Foreign Trade has the pleasure to submit, for transmission to the competent officials of the Protocol Relating to Trade Negotiations among Developing Countries, the specimen of the official stamp which must appear on certificates of origin accompanying exports from Romania, as indicated hereunder.
