AGREEMENT ON TEXTILES AND CLOTHING

Notification Pursuant To Article 6.1

Communication from Venezuela

The following communication has been received from the Permanent Mission of Venezuela.

I have the pleasure of notifying the Textiles Monitoring Body herewith of Venezuela's decision, pursuant to Article 6 of the Agreement on Textiles and Clothing of the World Trade Organization, to retain the right to use the transitional safeguard mechanism provided for in that Article.

I also submit herewith the list (on diskette and in printed form) of the textile and clothing products accounting for at least than 16 per cent of the total volume of Venezuela's imports for 1990 and which are to be included in the first phase of integration into the WTO in conformity with the aforementioned Agreement.¹

¹This communication will be reproduced in a separate document.
