Description: National Agency of Food and Drug Control of the Republic of Indonesia has issued Regulation of National Agency of Food and Drug Control (NAFDC) Number 5 year 2021 concerning Safety and Quality Standard of Alcohol Beverages. The regulation revokes Regulation of NAFDC Chairman Number 14 year 2016 on Safety and Quality Standards of Alcoholic Beverages.

This regulation mandates alcohol beverages that are produced domestically or imported and distributed in Indonesia market shall meet the standard of safety and quality as required in the regulation. Safety requirements include compliance to the maximum limit of methanol content, food additives, metal contamination, and chemical contamination. Quality requirements include compliance to: (a) requirement on methanol content and other requirements as listed in Appendix I, (b) other applicable regulations on quality requirements in food category.

The regulations provides a-12 month grace period to allow industry to comply with the regulation.
